

2023 ANNUAL LUNCHEON

Thursday 20th April 2023, The Brewery, 52 Chiswell Street, London EC1Y 4SD

This year's Annual Luncheon will once again take place at The Brewery, the iconic Grade II listed building in the heart of the City of London.

In recent years, over six hundred manufacturers, suppliers, installers and contractors within the heating, ventilating, building controls, refrigeration and air conditioning industry have attended this key industry event. Why not join them for a fantastic opportunity to network with your business colleagues and entertain your key clients, at what is now one of the best social events of the year?

Pre-lunch drinks will be served in the King George III Suite from midday, with a fabulous three course meal being served in the impressive Porter Tun Room at 1.00pm.

To guarantee your place, please complete the registration form overleaf. Previous events have always sold out in record time, so to avoid disappointment your early booking is advised. We wouldn't want you to miss the chance to be at this renowned industry event and the opportunity to talk to the people who are important to your business!

Post lunch entertainment will be provided by Martin Sixsmith an author, presenter and journalist, broadcasting on literature and music on BBC Radio Four and working on the political sitcom series, 'The Thick of It'.

During the 80s and 90s he worked for the BBC covering the end of the Cold War and reporting from Poland during the Solidarity uprising. He was also the BBC's Washington correspondent during the election and first presidency of Bill Clinton.

From 1997 to 2002 he worked for Tony Blair's Labour Government as Director of Communications, first with Harriet Harman, then with Alistair Darling and finally with Stephen Byers.

Martin went on to write two political novels and has worked on documentaries for the BBC exploring the legacy of the KGB in today's Russia.

He also wrote 'The Lost Child of Philomena Lee' which was adapted into the film Philomena, directed by Stephen Frears, starring Dame Judi Dench and Steve Coogan, as Sixsmith.
